FOUR MEET DEATH IN JOY RIDE

Eight Others Badly Injured in Head-on Collision of Autos

TESTIMONY AT INQUEST

Shows That Chauffeur Put on Speed to Pass Another Car and in Swerving Back to Road Rammed Approaching Machine.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
New York, Nov. 26.—Thomas F. Denny, Democratic member of the assembly from the nineteenth district; Leonard Cohen, a dress goods manufacturer, prominent in many circles, and two well-dressed young women lay dead in the morgue today, victims of an automobile crash in the Bronx.
All met instant death early this morning in a head-on collision between Cohen's car and the car of Bert T. Rich, a garage owner, operated by Jeremiah Mahoney, chauffeur. The latter was held on a technical charge of homicide.
Richard Rogers, negro chauffeur of the Cohen car, was battered and bruised, and of the four occupants of the Rich machine, three were injured. Rich suffered concussion of the brain, a young woman companion, Estelle Norton, was so badly bruised that she was rushed to a hospital and Mahoney, the chauffeur, had a knee crushed. William Morris, a lawyer was unscathed.
The two women victims in the Cohen had not been identified this morning.
One wore a ring inscribed "S. A. D." Testimony taken by a coroner showed that the members of Rich's party left Larchmont about midnight and their car swung into Pelham Parkway at a high clip. The Cohen automobile was eastbound, running, according to the negro chauffeur, about 22 miles an hour. The Rich car put on speed to pass a car between it and the Cohen car, and, swerving back to the road center, the chauffeur, blinded by the headlights, rammed squarely into the approaching car's front. The impact was terrific. The Rich car described a semi-circle and landed in two heaps, chassis and tonneau separated. The negro chauffeur alone rose from the wreck. The Cohen car, rebounding nearly 100 feet, was reduced to wreckage, and the car between the two, operated by Joseph Flaum, a chauffeur, was sidwined. The passengers, two young women and two young men, were slightly hurt. The total casualty list from the accident was four killed and eight injured.
Conrad Loos identified one of the women's bodies as that of his wife, Nannie.
"She went riding with Mr. Cohen last night," she said. "He was a friend of ours."
A daughter of Loos said she thought the other woman was Helen Schaffer, a friend of her mother.

JURY SAVES WILSON FROM THE HANGMAN

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 27.—Abraham Wilson, whose trial for an alleged assault upon Miss Kate Turner, has filled the Jefferson county court house for more than a week, was today found guilty after the jury had spent the night debating the testimony. The jury recommended that Wilson be confined in the penitentiary which saves him from hanging as under the law the court has no alternative when a verdict of guilty is without the recommendation.
Wilson's attorneys filed notice of appeal which will be argued later in the week. If appeal is not granted, sentence will be passed early next week.
Wilson, who is a wealthy farmer, showed no signs of emotion when the verdict was read.

PLUNGED 50 FEET FROM AUTOMOBILE INTO THE RIVER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Chicago, Nov. 26.—Despite their plunge of 50 feet from an automobile into the river last night, Frank Williams and Miss Mary Scheran will recover, it was said today. Williams, driving his car, reached the Division street jackknife bridge just as it began to rise. He threw on full power. The machine climbed the bridge leaf to the top and fell into the river. Williams and Miss Scheran were rescued by the crew of a passing fireboat.

Police Captain Reilly is to Be Quizzed

In connection with the huge wire-tapping frauds in New York by the shrewdest gang of criminals in the world many police officials will be examined by the district attorney of New York county. Among these will be Dominick F. Reilly, who retired from the police force the day before it became known that he would be questioned. Reilly was long confidential man to the chief of detectives.

THANKSGIVING PARDON GOES TO WALTER DIEHL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 26.—The governor's Thanksgiving pardon will go to Walter Diehl, serving a life sentence for participation in the Newark riot which resulted in the lynching of Carl Etherington, an Anti-Saloon League detective.
Warden Thomas of the penitentiary and President T. H. Davey of the state board of administration have recommended Diehl. He is 29 years old and was sent to the penitentiary in October, 1911.
While intoxicated, it is alleged, after the rioting occurred, Diehl declared he had taken a part in the lynching. It develops he was only in the crowd and was not a ring-leader.

Chairs and Tables are Banished From St. Louis Saloons

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, Nov. 26.—All card tables, chairs and music were banished from saloons in St. Louis county today by R. J. Fine, Progressive member of the county excise board.
"Card tables," he said, "lead men to play games for drinks and men who play all day drink all day. They stay away from their homes. By taking tables and chairs out of the saloons I think I have done away with loungers who warm the chairs until somebody comes in with an offer to treat."

WOULD CONTROL SHIPMENT OF COLD STORAGE PRODUCTS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 26.—Attorney General McKendall conferred today with representatives McKellar, of Tennessee, author of a bill to control shipments of cold storage products in interstate commerce.
As a result the department of justice will aid any congressional investigation.

Reports of the department's agents investigating an alleged combination of cold storage dealers, probably will be placed at the disposal of the House commerce committee. Mr. McKellar told the attorney general that in his opinion the Chicago packers use cold storage plants to control prices.

CASES CONTINUED
(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Cincinnati, Nov. 26.—The cases of 16 saloonkeepers in police court were continued today to Nov. 28. Attorneys representing the saloonkeepers who were arrested on a charge of having their places open without a license told the judge that every saloon not having a license now was closed and would remain so until the pending cases are settled.

STRIKERS PICKET THE BIG PLANT

No Violence Occurs as Men Plead With Non-union Workers

NO NEW DEVELOPMENTS

Have Occurred and No Conferences Have Been Held—Women Strikers of the General Electric Company Organize.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Two hundred union pickets were thrown around the plant of the General Electric company today to appeal with non-union workers to join them in the general walkout which began yesterday.

There was no violence, but the union workers pleaded and argued with those who are remaining loyal to the company and in a few cases the unorganized workmen were assailed by shouts of "scab" and "unfair."
No conferences were scheduled for today between the strikers and company officials. General Manager Geo. E. Emmons was at the plant early, but he said that so far as he knew there were no developments in the situation. Asked if he would reinstate any strikers who desired their old positions, he replied: "I will take no technical advantage of the situation."
A mass meeting of union workers was held in the People's church. Miss Ella Reeves Bloor of New York, who has charge of the women strikers, has organized a strike fund committee and already is soliciting assistance for the idle workers and their families.

Strikers and their sympathizers gathered in small groups about the streets and in front of the various union meeting halls. There was practically no disorder, the city assuming, for the most part, a holiday appearance.
Although trade in the larger stores was quiet, moving picture theatres and cafes did a thriving business.
Mayor Lunn said today he wished he had authority to close every saloon in the city. He added that although the charter did not give him this power, if disorder occurred in any section, he would immediately order the saloons closed in the vicinity.

OWNERS OF NEW PRISON SITE CUT TIMBER FROM LAND

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 26.—Injunction proceedings to prevent the present owners of the site in Madison county, selected for the new state prison, from cutting down some stately oak trees will be started in London today by representatives of the attorney general's office.

Chief Game Warden John Speaks on his return from the Madison county fisheries, reported directly to Governor Cox that the owners of the tract were working overtime in cutting timber. The tract is filled with virgin oaks and other large trees, the value of which has been considered by the prison site commission.

Condemnation proceedings have been begun in the Madison county courts to secure possession of the land for the state, and there is a difference of $25 per acre in the price asked and that offered by the state.
As soon as Governor Cox was informed of the conditions, Dr. Sherrard, a member of the prison site commission, was notified, and he, in turn, called upon Attorney General Hazan and requested him to take immediate action to prevent a further removal of any timber from the tract.

DEMOCRATS CONFER ON CURRENCY BILL

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 26.—The currency reform struggle was transferred from the open senate today to the closed precincts of a Democratic party conference. Leaders did not expect the conference would come to any binding agreement upon support of the Owen bill as a whole. Those supporting that bill which has received the general endorsement of President Wilson, were determined, however, to fight on any difference that might exist between them and the so-called Hitchcock wing of the party, behind closed doors, and to reach a general understanding that there should be no wholesale changes made in the Owen bill.
The sudden decision to call a caucus reached by the Democratic leaders, revived hope today in the minds of the more enthusiastic supporters of the administration bill, that the senate would be able to pass the measure before Christmas.

George S. Dougherty, Chief of Detectives of the New York Police Force

New York, Nov. 26.—George S. Dougherty, chief of detectives of the New York police force, and second deputy police commissioner, is deeply interested in the revelations of wire tapping brought out by District Attorney Whitman of New York county. The wire tappers, including such characters as the Gifford brothers, "Curley" Carter, and "Big Bill" Larsen, have paid 15 per cent. of each theft for protection to the police. In addition they gave up a stated sum of $2,500 each month.
The wire tappers have stolen more money than all other kinds of organized thieves. They looked for the wealthiest men only, and there have been many cases where they took as high as $50,000 from a single victim. Tenderloin experts do not believe that in the past two years they have stolen less than $1,000,000. But none of the really important men in the "graft" has ever been arrested. This despite the fact that some of them have driven about New York daily in expensive automobiles, and have daily and nightly been important figures in Tenderloin restaurants and cafes.

Fire at Akron Early This Morning Causes Loss of Half Million

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Akron, Nov. 26.—Fire which destroyed the Woods Block in the heart of the business district early this morning caused damage estimated at $500,000. Two firemen were injured, one seriously and several occupants of the block narrowly escaped with their lives.
Two hundred guests in the hotel just across the street at Main and Market were in a state of near-panic for a short time. Guests in all manners of dress crowded around the windows to watch the firemen fight the flames.
The fire started in the basement of the Douglas shoe store and spread rapidly. The building, one of the oldest business blocks in the city, burned rapidly.
Patrolman Grover C. Starkey fought his way through smoke and flame up three flights of stairs and rescued Mrs. C. E. Richardson and her baby who were asleep in their apartments on the top floor of the building. He broke down the door, picked up mother and babe in their night clothes and carried them to safety.
George Wilson and Clarence Tarr, firemen, were injured. Wilson was thrown to the street from the top of an extension ladder by the force of an explosion and sustained a dislocated shoulder. Tarr sustained a broken arm.
The Ozier & McCready cigar store, T. Zaharopoulos' fruit store, Lang Clothing company, Empire Motor Supply company, Akron Linotype Realty Benefit company, Royal Hair Shop, Arcade Photograph Studio and numerous physicians and lawyers offices were totally destroyed.

BUSINESS TO BE SUSPENDED ON THURSDAY

Business in Newark Thursday will practically be suspended in observance of the Thanksgiving holiday. All the banks and building associations, city and county offices, barber shops and some other lines will be closed all day. Most of the other business houses will be open all day or be open only a short time in the morning.

At the postoffice, the general delivery and stamp window will be open until 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be no delivery of mail, but clerks on duty during the day will look after the dispatching of the outgoing mail matter as usual.
In the morning a Union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Plymouth Congregational church at 10 o'clock when Rev. Calvin Haddox of the First Presbyterian church will deliver a sermon.
In the afternoon Newark lovers of football will have an opportunity of seeing the red Turkey Day game, the contending teams being the Colts and the Redskins.

Last year I started a saving account for my youngest grandson. That was the only present he got that he didn't break two days after he had it.

WEDDING OVER; WASHINGTON IS BACK AT WORK

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Nov. 26.—Mr. and Mrs. Francis Bowes Sayre were speeding off on their honeymoon journey today and while the few intimates of the Wilson and Sayre families in the close secret of where the newly married couple is bound, are declining to tell things at the white house were being put back to normal.
House guests, among them members of the bridal party, were departing decorations in the East Room were being removed. Large quantities of the flowers which were banded against the walls and the altar were sent to hospitals. The hundreds of wedding gifts, which occupied one large room on the second floor of the executive mansion, were being packed for shipment to the new home of the Sayres at Williams-town, Mass.
Business in the executive office was resumed too, and President Wilson took up many engagements which had been delayed over the wedding day.

STATE OFFICIALS BACK HOME FOR TURKEY DINNER

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, Nov. 26.—Many state officials and attaches of state offices left today for their homes in various parts of the state to spend Thanksgiving Day. Tomorrow will be observed as a holiday at the state house.
Governor Cox said today that he will spend Thanksgiving Day at the executive residence in this city. A Licking county friend has presented him with what is said to be a real wild turkey for Thanksgiving dinner.

HUNDREDS OF WOUNDED FEDERALS ARE LYING ON FIELD UNATTENDED

El Paso Citizens Appeal for Funds to Send Nurses and Surgeons to Look After Them; Many Have Been Stripped of Their Outer Clothing

REBEL WOUNDED ARE BEING BROUGHT TO JUAREZ

Straggling Soldiers from Huerta's Army Reaching El Paso State That Attack on Rebel Front Will Be Renewed Today and That They Have Lost None of Their Supply Trains and But Few Cannon—General Villa Claims That Federals are in "Shameless" Retreat—Bringing in the Wounded to Juarez.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 26.—On information that nearly 1000 Federal wounded are lying unattended on the battlefield at Mesa, 13 miles below Juarez, many of them stripped of their outer clothing, appeals for funds to equip hospital squads to go to the front were made this morning by local Huerta sympathizers.

Movements were started to raise funds to build hospitals, buy supplies and send surgeons and nurses to look after the Federal wounded.
The Rebel wounded, it was stated, are being brought to Juarez and are being cared for.

Federal soldiers who have reached this side of the border say the entire Federal army is at Samalayuca, 32 miles south of Juarez, its base of supplies, where there also is water. These stragglers say the Federals have lost none of their trains and few, if any cannon and that General Salvador Mercado, the commander, is arranging to renew the attack on the Rebel front today.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
El Paso, Texas, Nov. 26.—That the rebels defending Juarez consider all danger of further attack from the federals as past, was evidenced this morning by the digging up of mines near the Juarez Jockey club, which is to open the racing season tomorrow, and the destruction of barbed wire defenses erected to hold the federals in check.
General Villa still maintained that the federals were "in full and shameless retreat" over the hills, their trains and field pieces in his possession. A train was expected momentarily from the front with 400 federal prisoners on board.
No firing has been heard to the south of Juarez this morning up to 9 o'clock. Thus it appears that after thirty hours of fighting the rebel captors of the town had flung back the federal assault and would hold the border city without dispute. Villa said he would pursue the federals at once, but he is known to lack ammunition and will be forced to delay regardless of his inclinations in the matter.
He maintained that a sufficient rebel force is now besieging Chihuahua to prevent the retreating federals making their way into the state capital. If he has captured all their trains, the enemy is left without food or means of transportation in a desert and two hundred miles from its base.

The total dead in the battle is estimated at about 200; the wounded, many more than this. This was mere guess work as no Americans have been over the field and a fog was hanging heavily over everything this morning.
The American Red Cross has failed to respond to the appeals for aid made by the rebel officials yesterday and an effort will be made to obtain money from other sources to enable the El Paso doctors and nurses to care for the wounded. So far only men wounded in the head and body have been cared for. Broken arms and legs and flesh wounds have received no attention.
Those slightly wounded bandaged their hurts as best they could on the field with clothing, handkerchiefs or anything that would staunch the flow of blood. In several instances men were seen to cut bullets from their own flesh with pocket knives that had been drilled by use in camp and upon the march. The temporary hospital conditions in Juarez are not as bad as they were a week ago.
Hotels have been converted into hospitals and all the wounded are given care on beds. Lack of bandages, medicine and the poorer food for the wounded is causing most suffering. American doctors are willing to help in the care of the wounded at the last little to work with.
Juan N. Medina, chief of staff to Villa, maintained that all the Rebel wounded had been brought to Juarez. This gives them a total of about 100 wounded. He said their dead numbered about the same. The federal wounded are to be brought in today, he declared.

All the rebels have been taken up and private homes will have to be used if these men are to be cared for, or even under roof.
Seven hundred federal prisoners arrived early this morning on a special train from Tierra Blanca. Most of them are privates said to have been deserted on the field by their officers. All the hospitals in Juarez are crowded and reports of hospital trains coming in from the front indicate a thousand wounded will have arrived by tonight.
Constitutionalist officers, both on the battlefield and in Juarez last night praised the work of General Caraveo, the last federal commander to withdraw from the battle south of Juarez.

Despite the fact that General Caraveo's army was greatly outnumbered he kept up an incessant fire at the rebels on their right wing (west of Juarez) and tried repeated charges in the hope of breaking the line. At 8 o'clock Tuesday night he still was hammering away at the rebel entrenchments, but ceased his attempts to cut the line an hour later.
Gen. Jose Ynez Salazar again was reported captured and authentic reports from the military barracks in Juarez were that a detachment of rebels from the east wing were bringing the federal general to the city.
General Villa is the only original constitutionalist in the state of Chihuahua, having fought for the principles of Francisco I. Madero, since the beginning of the Madero uprising in 1910.
Villa constantly has fought under the Madero flag. Nearly all of the federal generals whom Villa defeated in the struggle at Tierra Blanca and surrounding country have at various times fought under the constitutionalist flag, but deserted the cause and cast their lot with the Huertistas.
The sufferings of the wounded rebels who were brought to Juarez were borne usually with great fortitude. With gaping wounds in the head or chest, or with limbs dangling from the body, and sharp wounds, the men lay or sat stolidly on the crude kitchen tables which the surgeons were using in their work of dressing the hurtlings.
"I never saw such indifference to pain in my life," exclaimed an El Paso doctor. "The victims scarcely ever spoke of their wounds. One man when told he could not live, smiled and said: 'Well, Madero died for his country, so can I.'"

REBEL LEADERS MOVING AGAINST CHIHUAHUA CITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Hermosillo, Sonora, Mexico, Nov. 26.—The defeat of the Federals below Juarez was considered by General Carranza and his advisers today as breaking the backbone of the Huerta power in the northern part of Mexico. The overthrow of such ex-surrender leaders as Pascual Orozco and Jose Inez Salazar, who were in the battle, always has been deemed by Rebel leaders more dangerous to the progress of the present revolution than the regular Federal troops.
It was reported here today that while Villa was engaging the troops of Salazar and Orozco, near Samalayuca, Manuel Chao, a Constitutionalist leader of the Parral district, was moving against Chihuahua City to attack General Mercado and 2000 Federals garrisoning the state capital.
With the defeat of the Federals at Juarez little difficulty was expected in the opinion of leaders here, in taking Chihuahua City.
General Villa in his official report to General Carranza stated he had defeated the Federal troops utterly and captured three military trains with all the Federal artillery, ammunition, and supplies.
General Alvaro Obregon, commander of the Constitutional forces, both on

BROKER'S CLERK STOLE SECURITIES VALUED AT $250,000

(Associated Press Telegram) New York, Nov. 26.—James Edward Foye, one-time clerk to John W. Gates, arrested on charges of having stolen securities valued at $250,000 from his last employer, the Farmers Loan & Trust company of this city for whom he was a clerk at $75 a month until three months ago.

Foye was arrested last night as he stepped from a train from Philadelphia. He took his arrest as a matter of course. In his pockets detectives found a certified check for $97,000 and crisp new bank notes aggregating $5000, all believed to be money obtained by sales of stolen securities to Charles Brown of Philadelphia. Detectives also found evidence that Foye was about to sail for Europe.

After spending the night in what he called "a filthy cell" in a police station, Foye was taken to police headquarters this morning. Soon after his arrest he telephoned to William T. Jerome, former district attorney of New York and retained him as counsel.

For three days Foye had been under surveillance of private detectives. Knowledge of Foye's plan to go abroad, it is believed, hastened the arrest. The prisoner is about 35 years old and gained notoriety several years ago when his mother caused his arrest for alleged failure to support her. This charge led to his dismissal by Mr. Gates. Foye told the trial magistrate then that his mother was unworthy of his financial aid and that he was sorry she had ever borne him.

A memorandum a few pages long, apparently prepared by an experienced traveler, was found in Foye's pocket.

In connection with Foye, the Farmers Loan & Trust company issued the following statement today: "No securities have been stolen from the Farmers Loan & Trust Co. James Foye has no access to the securities of the company. Foye was a temporary clerk engaged on the best of references. We feel that it is due those who have loaned money that no further statement shall be made until all the facts are known." The securities which Foye is alleged to have taken consisted of stock in the General Electric company, it was said. It was understood that this stock had been placed in the vaults of the Farmers Loan & Trust company.

CHRISTMAS TREE BRIGHTLY LIGHTED; WELL TRIMMED

To be Placed in Court House Park—Committee Busy with Plans—Will You Help?

The committee having in charge the plans for placing a big Christmas tree in the down town district a week or two before Christmas held another meeting last night.

Mrs. Linnie B. Allen and Miss Rose Feiler, representing the Women's Federated clubs, were present and volunteered assistance in decorating the tree. Mr. Fred Morrison of the Ohio Light & Power company promised co-operation from the lighting company which will provide electricity for the numerous electric lights that will be used in the decoration of the tree.

F. S. Neighbor and C. H. Spencer were appointed a committee on finance and advertising. Plans were made to complete the work within the next few days. A small amount of money will be needed to defray the expense and if the response to an appeal is generous the committee hopes to provide presents for the children, to be distributed Christmas eve.

The tree is to be a beauty and will help to put the proper Christmas spirit in every heart. It is to be everybody's Christmas tree and is to be THE Christmas tree for many a little boy or girl who will have none at home.

Those who approve the idea and want to have a hand in helping to make Newark's Christmas tree a success, are invited to send a cash contribution in any amount to the Advocate or the Tribune office. Send your check or currency to either newspaper office and mark it "Christmas tree." All contributions will be acknowledged through the press or personally if desired and the amount received will be handed to the committee.

Mr. Harry Scott suggested the idea of a Newark Christmas tree. It ought to be a big success. A little help from many will make it a success.

WILL AWAIT TEN DAYS BEFORE THEY MAKE A DECISION

Ten days must elapse before the county liquor licensing board makes known its decision on the application of Lee Beatty, former East Newark saloonist, for license privilege in Hanover village. If, at the expiration of that time, no other applications are filed and no protests are registered, the board may, if it sees fit, grant Beatty the privilege.

According to explanation made by members of the board, Wednesday, saloonists granted license after the beginning of the license year, are allowed the difference in the Aiken tax represented in the time between the beginning of the assessment year and the time of granting the late license, which is something more than $2.50 for each day.

While no formal action has been taken by the county board, it is said the requested transfer of Joseph Kuster to the former Empire cafe location probably cannot be allowed, since J. A. Flory and George W. Havens owners of the building, have declined to permit William Graef, the present lessee, to sublet.

Granville

Granville, Nov. 26.—The Fortnightly club held a regular meeting last evening in the home of Mrs. Arabella Light. The topic for the evening's discussion was based on "Some Possible Solutions of the Labor Problem." Several interesting papers were read in the course of the meeting pertaining to this subject. Mrs. Thompson read a paper on "Arbitration of Labor Disputes." Mrs. Henderson treated the subject, "Profit Sharing" with a very clear perception of the idea. The last paper was by Mrs. Owen concerning "Co-operation." This paper concluded the meeting. On December 9 an illustrated lecture will be given by Mrs. Hines.

L. J. Black was a Newark visitor Tuesday morning. A large number of horse buyers were attracted to Granville Tuesday by the sale which was held by Ed. Hammond, who is retiring from the livery business here, after a long and profitable service.

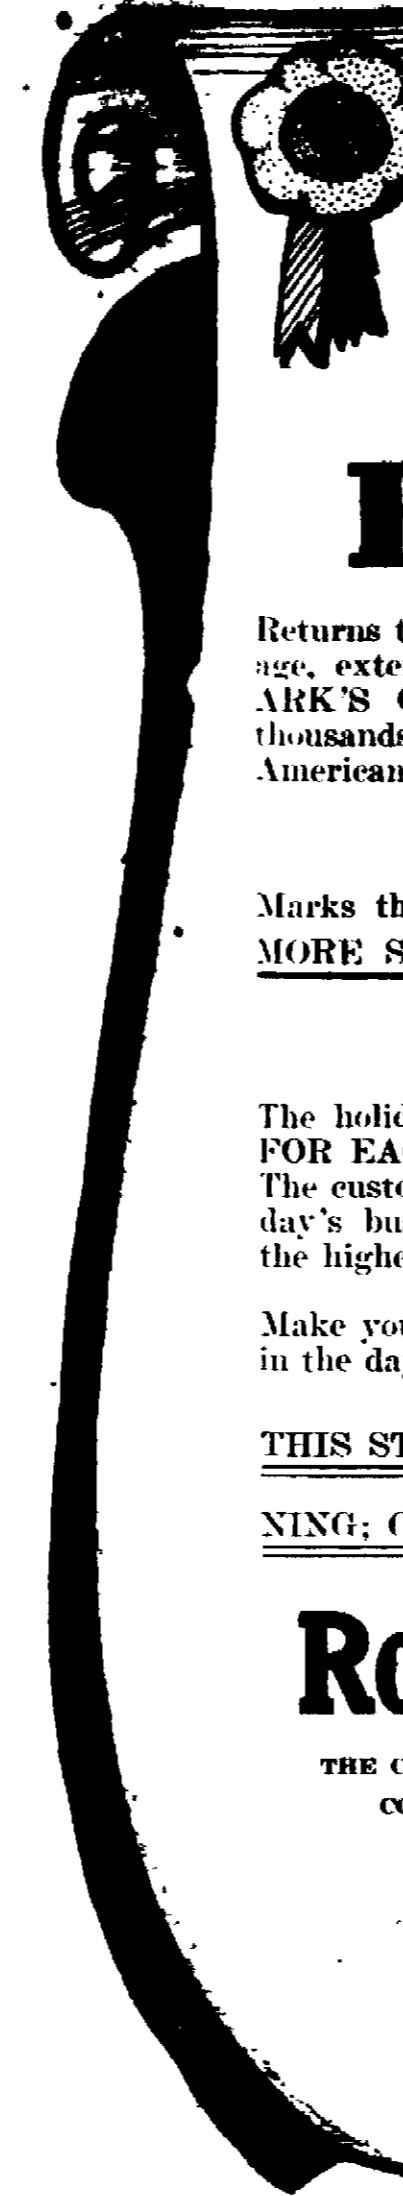

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burton will entertain as their guests at dinner Thursday: Mr. and Mrs. William Doan of Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. George Upham of Johnstown, and Mrs. Minnie Kerr of Granville.

An entertainment is being held this evening in the Town Hall in the form of a benefit for the Granville High School Athletic fund. The feature of the entertainment will be a trained dog whose name is Blont and his act is well known in Lyceum circuits.

BODY FOUND HANGING TO THE RAFTERS

(Associated Press Telegram) Cincinnati, Nov. 26.—The body of John Schilling, aged 35, was found hanging from the rafters in his room at his home here today. NOVEMBER 1st 4318 Telephones On Our System

Why? Why? The Automatic Telephone does not compete with the manual any more than the railroad competes with the stage-coach or the electric light with the candle. A though the transmission of speech is the object of both systems, the Automatic accomplishes this result so much more directly, quickly and efficiently that to compare the two is impossible; they must rather be contrasted. And just as in every other conflict between machines and the "human factor," the Automatic Telephone is supplanting the manual, no longer its rival, simply its predecessor.

The Turkey in Hotels.

That noble bird the turkey struts alluringly before the vision of every housewife in the country. Rene Anlard, chef at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York, tells how he cooks the Waldorf turkey in the "favorite American way," as he puts it. He says:

"Begin with the stuffing. Soak sufficient bread in milk and then strain through a cloth. Mix in chopped bacon, onions, a small quantity of chopped eggs, sage, chopped parsley and salt and pepper. This is the most generally used stuffing. Of course the turkey is cooked according to size. A very large bird would take two hours and a half. A medium sized bird would take from an hour to two hours. Lard should be poured on the upside of the bird while it is cooking to produce a rich yellow color. Then there is another stuffing that we prepare on state occasions. This is a fancy stuffing, with finely chopped flavored meat, truffles and Madeira wine. These ingredients are mixed with milk soaked bread."

Auguste Bisson, chef at the Hotel Astor, gave the following Thanksgiving day recipe:
"Bread soaked in milk and strained. Mix in sausage meat, chopped cooked chestnuts, a bit of pork, sage and salt and pepper. Every once in awhile pour the gravy over the breast until the desired color is attained. This keeps the bird juicy."

Nevertheless these chefs declare the old fashioned way is the best and that probably American housewives know more about the cooking of a turkey than they do.

Don't Worry.

"Don't worry" was the recipe for leag life recently given by an aged physician who had preserved his youth. "Good advice, but impractical," you say. But did you ever give it a real trial? A person can't stop worrying merely by saying, "Go to, now; I am not going to worry any more." The more he thinks about stopping the more impossible it is to stop.

There is a way, though. Don't consciously try to stop worrying, but get interested in something else. If you have something to worry about and give yourself the opportunity you will do a lot of worrying. But if you keep busy you won't give worry a chance. When a great sorrow comes a person may simply abandon himself to it by letting his other interests lag. But by looking about for something to absorb his attention he can put himself in a wholesome frame of mind.

How To Sell a Cow.

A Scotch dealer at Clones fair was asked by a countryman to do him a favor. "You see that woman," said he, "pointing to a woman. Well, I've offered her five pounds for her cow, but she won't sell. Now, if you, a stranger, should offer her five pounds fifteen she would sell, but would not sell to me for that. Will you be kind enough to take this half crown and bind the bargain with it, and I will then pay the money and take the cow." The good natured cattle dealer effected the purchase as requested and then turned to find the countryman but the latter was gone. He was forced to take the cow himself and pay for her, though she was not worth half the money he had thus bid to oblige the missing countryman. It was afterward ascertained that the woman was the countryman's wife.

Criticism is the lot of all public action and as long as a man can reconcile his conscience to having done the best at the time he need fear no critic. Aside from the somewhat gratuitous slap at my "cheap wit" the tone of the article was splendid and I concur, especially in the getting down to business which, to those who are working with me daily is evident, but I cannot over-come and rebuild in a day. I can only hope that a returning sense of public duty will clear the public mind and as each question is brought up for settlement it will be settled on a fair and square basis, even as I know is your wish. I fear your article conveys the impression that the public is mindless of the great good done in the past, which I am sure they are not, and whatever part I may have had in criticizing it is honest.

I was invited to come into the situation, I did not thrust myself into it. I was asked to give my candid views, which I have done and shall do and if I am to be of any permanent good it must be through avenues of frank expression. I fear that to able words of yours or humble thoughts of mine can change a bad conviction. It will take work, and plenty of it, for a long time and so let us, as we expect to get, give every man the benefit of being honest in his criticism and thrive on it, because if our efforts are sincere and we abide criticism without rancor, and by consistent pursuit merit public confidence, we will get it to the greater benefit of the community and the good of the Board of Trade. My humble efforts in the "Ginger Snap" are perhaps no credit but, while the author of your article is sensitive, can not I be so also? However, I hope to see the situation develop into a credit to all the men who have done so much good in the past and those who have now taken up the work. Personally, I seek not aggrandizement, but the accomplishment of the purpose for which I am employed, the proper management of the Board of Trade as I find it.

Church Suppers.

The communication signed "One of Them," in last night's Advocate was read with interest. The writer of that paragraph must have read the article in Monday's Advocate very hurriedly or not at all. The news notice in Monday's paper by no means said that the First Presbyterian church suppers were not profitable. In fact it is generally known that the suppers are highly profitable and the ladies of the church have conducted these Saturday suppers with remarkable success for the past several years. However, it must not be understood that the entire success is due to the profit upon the supper for in fact considerable money and part of the food supplies are donated by members or friends of the church. It was to test the matter that the ladies of another church gave a 25 cent supper recently and they bought all of the food supplies for the service. Nothing was donated. Over 300 people took supper and the ladies lost $3 after paying all the bills. This experience naturally led to the query—how much money would the First church ladies make each week if they bought all of their food supplies? It is a general belief that the First church ladies are serving a 50 cent dinner for 25 cents but the fine thing about it is they are making money in doing so. Part of their success is due to friendly donations and a large part is also due to their business-like management.

Some Amusements for Thanksgiving

The Thanksgiving dinner is usually a jolly affair in itself, especially if it is in the nature of a family reunion, without anything in the way of merrymaking being added to it. But if something in the nature of amusement is wanted, there are any number of pleasant diversions that entail little trouble in the preparing that can be indulged in.

The jollity of the dinner itself can be added to by making a conundrum menu. Before the courses are served the guests can be asked to guess (by what is on the menu) the dish that is coming. A prize can be given to the one who makes the greatest number of correct guesses. These can be given verbally and the hostess keep tab; but better yet, they can be written on each menu, if one has been provided at each place, and then after the meal is over the menus can be passed to the hostess and she name the winner, as a pretty finish to the dinner. A small pencil should be attached to each menu card, and the guest be asked to place his or her name on it. The menus can then be returned to the owners and kept as souvenirs.

These conundrum menus are interesting. For instance, if mock turtle soup is served, instead of giving the name of the soup, write, "An imitation reptile." If cod is the fish course, call it "Collect on Delivery." Grapefruit passes as a kind of shot; ham, as one of Noah's sons. Goose could go down as a tailor's tool. Quail, to shirk from danger, and the oyster as the emblem of silence. Whatever the menu may be, it would not be difficult to work it out in this conundrum form.

After the dinner is over and the guests have returned to the living room, among the various diversions of the afternoon or evening could be included "Historical Questions." Have prepared a list of questions suitable to the day. Pass pencils and paper, and award a prize for the one giving the best answers.

Among the questions that would be suitable would be such as these: Why, where and when was the First Thanksgiving celebrated? Who issued the proclamation? Who was the English sovereign at the time?

By reading up a little on the history of the event, the hostess can easily prepare a set of interesting questions. And when the papers have been turned in and the correct answers read, many of the guests will probably be surprised to find how few of the historical facts of the event they are celebrating they really know.

Guessing the seeds in a pumpkin is a true-blue Thanksgiving performance. And seeing how many words can be made out of the word "Thanksgiving" is another simple but amusing way to pass ten or fifteen minutes. A time-limit should, of course, be put upon this game.

Neatness.

Jim Griggins the grocer's a seedy old jay; his whiskers are ragged, his hair all astray; his hands are begrimed when he weighs out your squash. His garments suggest that they're fit for the wash. And Griggins keeps saying, when people will list: "The country is going to blitzen, I s'wear. My trade's growing, my dunder—I can't make it thrive—I haven't one patron where once I had five!" But Griggins, the grocer, just over the way, is selling his prunes and his Young Hyson hay; he always seems busy, he takes in the scads, the roubles, the rhino, the dust of our duds. But Griggins is always in a matty array, his whiskers are combed in the Ham Lewis way, his bald spot is washed till it mirrorlike gleams, his shirt has no butter or lard on its seams, his trousers are creased and don't bag at the knees, his shoes aren't spotted with Limburger cheese. And all through his store things are nifty and clean, from the codfish and soap to the shredded sardine. So people parade to his place by the score, while Griggins is grouching around in his store.

PEACEFUL REST FOR NERVOUS PEOPLE

This Harmless Nerve Sedative and Tonic Should Be Kept in Every Household.

Most all Americans are at times subject to nervous spells. We work too hard, we eat too much and we dissipate too much. Sleepless nights and constant irritation invariably result.

Insomnia is a grave trouble. It means that the nervous system, the real life of the body, is impaired. It should be restored promptly and sensibly.

Morse's Glycerole is a pure vegetable nerve tonic. The formula is on every label. It is such a harmless nerve sedative that thousands of physicians prescribe it for teething infants.

It is guaranteed for brain-fag, nervousness, sleeplessness, despondency and lack of vital force.

For people broken in health from over indulgence in alcohol or tobacco or from excesses of any kind, Morse's Glycerole is guaranteed.

Reads pretty strong and is the strongest guarantee anyone can give. But Mr. Haze Morse, who has been compounding Morse's Glycerole for Physicians and Hospitals for 35 years, knows so well what his product will do, that he is willing to pay the price if it fails to benefit rundown people. Civilization Promotes Its Own Destruction.

Segregation of Unfit a Duty

By
DR. CHARLES W. ELIOT,
President Emeritus
of Harvard University

THE progressive civilization of the last one hundred years has worked terribly against the health and perpetuity of the whole race. This is seen in the REDUCED VITALITY of the multitudes that inhabit closely built cities, in the DIMINISHING SIZE OF FAMILIES, in the incapacity of many women for bearing and nursing children and in the disproportionate increase in the number of the insane, the defective and the criminally inclined.

SUCH CITIES AS PARIS, LONDON, BERLIN, NEW YORK AND CHICAGO BEAR WITNESS TO THE FACT THAT MODERN CIVILIZATION IS ALL THE TIME PREPARING AND PROMOTING ITS OWN DESTRUCTION.

It is a plain duty of the state to provide SEGREGATION of the DEFECTIVE, the INSANE and the HABITUAL CRIMINAL in order to prevent the breeding of human beings from such stock. It is not yet clear how good breeding can be promoted among free men and women, but it is clear how BAD BREEDING CAN AND SHOULD BE PREVENTED.

Society should be enlightened concerning the means of defending civilization against ITS OWN TENDENCIES OF DECAY AND DISSOLUTION and the strengthening of the social resolution to put into execution all the measures which Christian ethics and the medical arts and sciences recommend.

Among defensive measures against the evils which crowded cities and the factory system have brought on mankind the subject of school hygiene is of FIRST IMPORTANCE. The evils which result from bad housing, overcrowding and unwholesome excitement in cities and from the factory system which prevails in many important industries have their WORST EFFECT ON CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE. It is to the rising generation, therefore, that PREVENTIVE AND REMEDIAL MEASURES may be most hopefully applied.

—AND THE WORST IS YET TO COME

HAD CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

Peruna Relieved a Sufferer.

Mr. A. M. Ikerd, 10 x 31, West Burlington, Io., writes:

"I had catarrh of the stomach and small intestine for a number of years. I went to a number of doctors and got no relief, and finally one of my doctors sent me to Chicago and I met the same fate. They said they could do nothing for me; said I had cancer of the stomach and there was no cure. I almost thought the same, for my breath was offensive and I could not eat anything without great misery, and I gradually grew worse.

"Finally I concluded to try Peruna, and I found relief and a cure for that dreadful disease, catarrh. I took five bottles of Peruna and two of Manalin, and I now feel like a new man. There is nothing better than Peruna, and I keep a bottle of it in my house all the time."

It is a remarkable story that Mr. Ikerd tells. It is a true story, but very briefly told. If he put into his story all of the details it would make a chapter of suspense and agony, hope and final recovery, equal to the wildest fiction. Any one wishing to do so can write Mr. Ikerd and ascertain whether there has been any exaggeration in his case.

The "Hills of Life" will be sent free by addressing the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Those who object to liquid medicines can now procure Peruna Tablets.

The fruiterer may have a poor memory of names and faces, but he can always remember dates.

J. W. HANCOCK,

ENTERTAINED ELKS AT PIG ROAST LUNCH

Messrs. Ralph Norpell and Fletcher S. Scott celebrating their recent victories at the late election, when the former was elected city solicitor and the latter justice of the peace, entertained members of the Elk lodge at the club rooms Tuesday evening at a pig roast. The young porker weighed 110 pounds and was done to a turn at one of the local bakeries. It was served under the skillful direction of Steward Billy Hohl, assisted by that well known caterer, Joseph Kuster, Jr. Mr. Hohl, a past master in the art of arranging a feed for a herd of hungry men, and Tuesday evening he outdid all former efforts by the excellence of the luncheon which was served to about 150 guests.

Messrs. Norpell and Scott met their guests in the reception hall and they were ushered into the music and billiard rooms, where the time was passed in vocal and instrumental music and pinocle, until the luncheon hour was announced, preceding which the hosts welcomed their guests in a few pertinent remarks appropriate to the occasion. They were responded to in behalf of the guests by Messrs. James McGonagle, Henry Scheidler, Clem Cole and Geo. Kimble, who extended felicitations and best wishes for a successful administration of affairs of office. Mr. Scott promised to make his pre-election pledge good in which he promised to salute the first bride he marries with a fatherly kiss.

All likes present pronounced the pig roast one of the best ever, and an enjoyable evening followed the serving of the luncheon.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1902—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Billy Papke in the 11th round at Colima. This bout was for the middleweight championship, of the world, which had not been fought for since the McCoy-Creedon fight in 1897. Papke had knocked out Ketchel at Vernon the previous September, and demanded $12,000 of the $20,000 guarantee offered by Jimmy Croffoth. Ketchel accepted this division. A big holiday crowd was on hand to see the fight, and money was wagered freely, with Papke the favorite. Jack Welsh was the third man in the ring. The first three rounds were even, both men fighting furiously, but from then on Ketchel had the best of it, and won by a knockout in the 11th chapter. At one time both men tumbled out of the ring, but crawled back and went at it again.

1906—Jack Johnson and Joe Jeanette fought a ten round draw at Portland, Me.

1910—Owen Moran knocked out Bat Nelson in the 11th round at San Francisco.

Words of Praise

For Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy

"How thankful we are to you for getting a hold of your Wonderful Remedy. My wife could not have had but a short time to live if she had not taken your Wonderful Remedy when she did. One more of those paroxysms pains she was having would have killed her without a doubt. Now she is free from all pain, free from heart trouble and free from that distressing Neuralgia—all the results of five treatments—and now she is able to eat anything she wants and her appetite is good and before taking your medicine she had no appetite and when she ate she ate and could not sleep at night, since taking your treatment she sleeps well all night long. I. A. Mack, Beaumont, Texas."

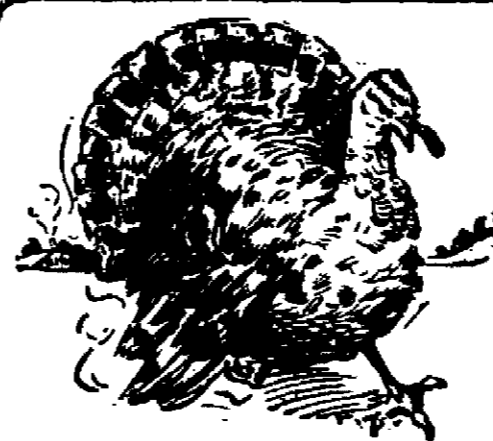

The above letter should convince you more than anything we could say in behalf of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Sufferers should try it, as it does not do any harm, and since they can be restored to health. Nearly all Stomach Ailments are caused by the clogging of the intestinal tract with mucus and catarrhal secretions allowing poisonous fluids into the stomach and otherwise deranging the digestive system. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy removes these secretions without a surgical operation and puts an end to Colic Attacks, Gases in the Stomach and Intestines and all the usual symptoms of Stomach, Liver and Intestinal Ailments. Ask your druggist about Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 15 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free booklet on Stomach Ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored.

For sale in Newark, N. J., by G. H. Mayr, 215 E. Main St., and druggists everywhere.

PUBLIC HAS PROFITED BY A TELEPHONE WAR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Nov. 26.—An "immense sum" in telephone profits has been lost to the telephone companies of this country, by "destructive competition" by independent systems and the American Telephone and Telegraph company. The public has profited by the warfare and it was to put an end to this situation that a $400,000,000 merger was proposed by the American company backed by the Morgan financial power. This was the substance of the testimony here today of Ernest H. Fisher, secretary of the Citizens Telephone company of Grand Rapids, Mich., at the hearing in the government anti-trust suit against the American company.

Mr. Fisher said the merger proposition was put into words by Theodore N. Vail, president of the American company and that H. P. Davidson of the firm of J. P. Morgan & Company told the 60 or 70 independent telephone men gathered to hear it that "The House of Morgan" was prepared to guarantee the financing of any proposition made by the American company.

This took place at the meeting here Dec. 19, 1910, to which the members of the Independent Telephone Association then in convention here were summoned by a message that Mr. Vail was in the city and desirous of meeting them to talk merger.

Mr. Fisher said he had opposed the proposition as "improper" and financially bad. Telephone rates rise to unjustified proportions as soon as competition is eliminated, he said. After the establishment of competition in Grand Rapids, he said, telephone rates were placed at $36 yearly, which enabled a subscriber to have both systems for $72 yearly. In Springfield, Mass., Mr. Fisher stated where the rate system has no competition, the rate is $72 a year for one telephone and in Albany, N. Y., it is $96 a year for one telephone.

The Citizens company, according to Fisher, is another independent which is on its feet and thriving under Bell competition. It has 12,515 subscribers in Grand Rapids while the Bell has 8,000 and the Citizens company has averaged 8 per cent dividends and has paid six per cent regularly on its bonds.

TURKEYS BRING HIGH PRICE AT MARKET HOUSE

Newark folks are lovers of luxuries. Market vendors and downtown produce houses did a rushing pre-Thanksgiving sale Wednesday, and the chief object of the buyers was turkey. This particular delicacy ranged in price from 22 cents a pound dressed, in store markets, to a prevailing 28 cents at the country market. One vendor at the market house was offering fair turkeys at 25 cents.

There was an unusually heavy demand for ducks and chickens. The demand for chickens as a substitute for turkey did not make a great difference in the market price, however, as there was a good supply. Ducks brought from 70 to 90 cents, both in the store and country markets. Chickens were offered at 60 and on up to 80 cents. Cranberries, fair, at 10 cents a quart; extra, 12 cents. Home prepared pumpkin, 10 cents a quart, and mince meat, home prepared, 25 cents a quart. Fresh eggs maintained the record price of 45 cents a dozen everywhere.

MAIL WILL NOT BE DELIVERED THANKSGIVING

The old custom of making one delivery of mail by the carriers on a holiday will not be observed on tomorrow, Thanksgiving Day. There will be no delivery of mail on Thursday, the carrier department being closed. The mail will be dispatched as usual, however, and the stamp and general delivery window will be open until 10 o'clock Thursday morning. All perishable articles will also be delivered as usual.

FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

Are Told How to Regain Strength and Vigor.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, I am sure you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money. Frank D. Hall, druggist, Newark, O. P. S.—Our Saxo Salve stops itching and begins healing at once.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Nov. 26.—[Special.]—The great difficulty with which the United States will have to contend, even if it is successful in driving Huerta from power, is that whatever government is set up in his place will no doubt have the opposition of the old Diaz element in Mexico.

Old Porfirio Diaz may have been a tyrant and in his long dictatorship did a great many things which civilization cannot approve, but he gathered about him many friends. More than that, he convinced the men with money that only such a government as he conducted could survive in Mexico. One reason why Madero was unable to sustain himself was because the old Diaz element was opposed to him.

Have Their Own Troubles.

During the week the conservationists were in session at Washington the Mexican situation was acute, but no one heard the conservation delegates talking about it. They had troubles of their own. They were not interesting themselves about Huerta, Carranza or the stories of murders and atrocities which were wafted across the border. They had a nice fight of their own.

Mind Weary Senators.

It may have been thought that the senators who handled the tariff bill had a hard time, but they had a picnic compared with the senators who have been trying to frame a currency bill. Owen of Oklahoma, who is trying to make a legislative monument for himself in currency legislation, seemed to have the hardest time of all, as he spent much time in trying to reconcile conflicting differences. Besides, he has been on the job ever since congress convened, when he was elected chairman of the committee. And these senators are a long way from the terminal even with the bill reported to the senate.

Army and Navy Recruits.

It is no doubt a matter of gratification to army and navy officers to receive reports from the recruiting stations that they are getting soldiers to fill the regiments and sailors to man the ships, but there is another aspect to such conditions. It may mean that many men are out of employment. There never has been any trouble in getting recruits in hard times. When there is plenty of labor there is a dearth of recruits. These enlistments have long been a barometer of employment conditions throughout the country.

Farmer Moore.

Willis L. Moore, for more than sixteen years chief of the weather bureau, in which position he became as well known as almost any other man in the country, has retired from science, from politics and from all else except farming. He has settled down on his farm at Rockville, Md., about twenty miles from Washington, and is a real "horny handed son of toil."

Welcomed "Uncle Shelby."

Former Senator Cullum was seen on the floor of the house the other day for the first time since his term closed on the 4th of March. He was warmly welcomed by all the senators, for everybody liked "Uncle Shelby."

Taft Will Fight.

Whatever may have been said about former President Taft, there is not the least doubt about his fighting qualities when he once makes up his mind. We all recollect how he insisted upon Canadian reciprocity when nearly every man in his party advised against it. Now it seems that he is going to take up the cudgels against freedom of the Philippines from American control, and he will make an interesting contest, although he lacks the power he exerted four years ago. It promises to be quite an enlightening contest before there is any action taken.

The "Dealers' Deal."

A newspaper friend of mine of long experience whenever he hears of some set of politicians or other persons in power getting the best of conditions, remarks: "Why not? It's their deal." And that is what seems to be the case in regard to dealers and the tariff. There never was a tariff passed yet which increased rates that was not immediately followed by an increase of prices. And now with a new tariff which largely decreased rates there has been no decrease in prices.

"We must sell the goods we have according to the old rates," is the explanation, although the same rule is not followed when rates of duty have been increased. It certainly is the "dealers' deal."

Bassford, Fruit Farmer.

Wallace Bassford, the speaker's secretary, who is well known all over the country during the last presidential campaign, has bought a fruit farm on the banks of the Mississippi and will next spring with politics in the future.
